Safeguarding Policy

Safeguarding Policy

Time Out Club is committed to building a 'culture of safeguarding' in which the children in our care are protected from abuse, harm and radicalisation.

The Club will respond promptly and appropriately to all incidents or concerns regarding the safety of a child that may occur. The Club's child protection procedures comply with all relevant legislation and with guidance issued by Hertfordshire Safeguarding Children Partnership.

There is a Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) available at all times while the Club is in session. The DSL coordinates child protection issues and liaises with external agencies (e.g. Social Care, LSCB and Ofsted). The Club's designated DSL is Lesley Martin. The Deputy DSL is Diane Fensome.

If there is a concern about the club's DSL, it should be reported to the Chair of Trustees, York Mui Liu. The email address for the Chair is chair.timeoutclub@gmail.com.

Time Out Club will share Safeguarding concerns about Manland pupils with the Headteacher and DSL of Manland Primary school.

Child abuse and neglect

Child abuse is any form of physical, emotional or sexual mistreatment or lack of care that leads to injury or harm. An individual may abuse or neglect a child directly, or by failing to protect them from harm. Some forms of child abuse and neglect are listed below.

- Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child so as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve making the child feel that they are worthless, unloved, or inadequate. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, though it may occur alone.
- Physical abuse can involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may be also caused when a parent or carer feigns the symptoms of, or deliberately causes, ill health to a child.
- Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child to take part in sexual activities, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. This can involve physical contact, or non-contact activities such as showing children sexual activities or encouraging them to behave in sexually inappropriate ways.
- Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and emotional needs. It can involve a failure to provide adequate food, clothing and shelter, to protect a child from physical and emotional harm, to ensure adequate supervision or to allow access to medical treatment.

Signs of child abuse and neglect

Signs of possible abuse and neglect may include:

- significant changes in a child's behaviour
- deterioration in a child's general well-being
- unexplained bruising or marks

- comments made by a child which give cause for concern

If you have reason to suspect:

- that a girl may have been subjected to/is at risk of female genital mutilation (FGM), you must report this to the local police authority. This is a mandatory requirement.

If you have reason to suspect

- neglect or abuse outside the setting, e.g. in the child's home.
- or inappropriate behaviour displayed by a member of staff, or any other person. For example, inappropriate sexual comments, excessive one-to-one attention beyond the requirements of their role, or inappropriate sharing of images.

This should be reported to the onsite DSL as soon as possible.

If abuse is suspected or disclosed

When a child makes a disclosure to a member of staff, that member of staff will:

- reassure the child that they were not to blame and were right to speak out
- listen to the child but not question them
- give reassurance that the staff member will take action
- record the incident as soon as possible (see Logging a concern below).
- name, signature and job title of the person making the record.

If a member of staff witnesses or suspects abuse, they will record the matter straightaway using the Logging a concern form. If a third party expresses concern that a child is being abused, we will encourage them to contact Social Care directly. If they do not do so, we will explain that the Club is obliged to, and the incident will be logged accordingly.

Female genital mutilation (FGM)

FGM is an illegal, extremely harmful practice and a form of child abuse, and is therefore dealt with as part of our existing safeguarding procedures. All of our staff receive training in how to recognise when girls are at risk of FGM, or may be subject to it (see our FGM section within the Safeguarding file)

Peer-on-peer abuse

Children are vulnerable to abuse by their peers. Peer-on-peer abuse is taken seriously by staff and will be subject to the same child protection procedures as other forms of abuse. Staff are aware of the potential uses of information technology for bullying and abusive behaviour between young people.

Staff will not dismiss abusive behaviour as normal between young people. The presence of any of the following behaviour patterns displayed in relationships between children, should always trigger concern about the possibility of peer-on-peer abuse:

- Sexual activity (in primary school-aged children) of any kind, including sexting

- One of the children is significantly more dominant than the other (e.g. much older)
- One of the children is significantly more vulnerable than the other (e.g. in terms of disability, confidence, physical strength)
- There has been some use of threats, bribes or coercion to ensure compliance or secrecy.

If peer-on-peer abuse is suspected or disclosed

We will follow the same procedures as set out above for responding to child abuse.

Please also refer to our Bullying policy.

Extremism and radicalisation

All childcare settings have a legal duty to protect children from the risk of radicalisation and being drawn into extremism. There are many reasons why a child might be vulnerable to radicalisation, e.g.:

- feeling alienated or alone
- seeking a sense of identity or individuality
- suffering from mental health issues such as depression
- desire for adventure or wanting to be part of a larger cause
- associating with others who hold extremist beliefs

Signs of radicalisation

Signs that a child might be at risk of radicalisation include:

- changes in behaviour, for example becoming withdrawn or aggressive
- claiming that terrorist attacks and violence are justified
- viewing violent extremist material online
- possessing or sharing violent extremist material

If a member of staff suspects that a child is at risk of becoming radicalised, they will record any relevant information or observations on a Logging a concern form and refer the matter to the DSL.

Logging a concern

All information about the suspected abuse or disclosure, or concern about radicalisation, will be recorded on the Logging a concern form as soon as possible after the event. The record should include:

- date of the disclosure, or the incident, or the observation causing concern
- date and time at which the record was made
- name and date of birth of the child involved
- a factual report of what happened. If recording a disclosure, you must use the child's own words
- name, signature and job title of the person making the record.

The record will be given to the Club's DSL who will decide on the appropriate course of action.

For concerns about child abuse, the DSL will contact Social Care. The DSL will follow up all referrals with a written report to Children's Services in a timely manner. If a member of staff thinks that the incident has not been dealt with properly, they will contact the Chair of Trustees, York Mui Liu.

Time Out Club

Safeguarding Policy

For any concerns regarding radicalisation, the DSL will contact the Local Authority Prevent Co-ordinator. For serious concerns, the DSL will contact the Police on the non-emergency number (101), or the anti-terrorist hotline on 0800 789 321. For urgent concerns, the DSL will contact the Police using 999.

Logging a concern form retention

Time Out will share relevant Logging a concern forms with Manland Primary School. The date and method of this sharing will be annotated on the form. Time Out will retain all forms in a secure location for the duration of the child's education or longer if required by specific legislation, such as in the case of children with SEN.

Allegations against staff

If anyone makes an allegation of child abuse against a member of staff:

- The allegation will be recorded on an Incident record form. Any witnesses to the incident should sign and date the entry to confirm it.
- The allegation must be reported to the Time Out Chair of Trustees, the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) and to Ofsted. The LADO will advise if other agencies (e.g. police) should be informed, and the Club will act upon their advice. Any telephone reports to the LADO will be followed up in writing as soon as possible.
- Following advice from the LADO, it may be necessary to suspend the member of staff pending full investigation of the allegation.
- If appropriate the Club will make a referral to the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Promoting awareness among staff

The Club promotes awareness of child abuse and the risk of radicalisation through its staff training. The Club ensures that:

- the designated DSL has relevant experience and receives appropriate training in safeguarding and the Prevent Duty, and is aware of the Channel Programme and how to access it
- designated person training is refreshed every three years.
- safer recruitment practices are followed for all new staff
- all staff have read and signed a copy of this Safeguarding Policy, understand its contents and are vigilant to signs of abuse, neglect or radicalisation.
- all staff are aware of their statutory duties regarding the disclosure or discovery of child abuse, and concerns about radicalisation.
- all staff receive basic safeguarding training, and safeguarding is a permanent agenda item at all staff meetings and Trustee meetings.
- all staff receive basic training in the Prevent Duty annually.
- staff are familiar with the Safeguarding Folder, which is available in the Time Out Room, which contains Government/Local Authority information with regard to Safeguarding, Manland School information with regard to Safeguarding and general communications sent from Time Out to Club families.
- the Club's procedures are in line with the guidance in 'Working Together to Safeguard Children (2018)' and staff are familiar with 'What To Do If You're Worried A Child Is Being Abused (2015)'.

Use of mobile phones and cameras

Photographs will only be taken of children with their parents' permission as indicated on their registration form. Only the club phone can be used to take photos. See the mobile phone policy

Promoting awareness amongst children.

Time Out Club promotes a culture where the children feel safe, are encouraged to talk, and are listened and responded to when they have a worry or concern. We endeavour to teach the children who attend Time Out Club how to keep themselves safe and we promote the Manland Values, which support a safe environment for the children. We encourage a culture where staff in Time Out Club can share their concerns or worries regarding the welfare of the children who attend. The children know who in the club they could approach if they have any concerns, and we provide various strategies including a worry box which is in the Time Out Club room. Where possible, Time Out club will provide more focused pastoral support where issues are identified that individual pupils may need help with, drawing on external support where necessary and possible. Time Out staff have access to the MindEd learning platform for professionals, which contains materials on peer support, stress, fear and trauma, and bereavement.
